CODE OF INTERNAL PROCEDURES AND CONDUCT FOR REGULATING, MONITORING AND REPORTING OF TRADING BY INSIDERS (Pursuant to Securities Exchange Board of India,
(Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations, 2015)
(EFFECTIVE FROM 15TH MAY 2015)

Insider trading means trading in Securities of a Company by its Directors, Employees or other Insiders while in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI). Such trading by Insiders erode the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interest of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 under the powers conferred on it under SEBI Act, 1992, which came into effect from November 19, 1992 and the same were made applicable to all companies whose shares were listed on Indian stock exchanges.

To strengthen these regulations and to create a framework for prevention of insider trading to facilitate legitimate business transactions, Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations) were notified by SEBI on January 15, 2015 which will become effective from May 15, 2015. The Regulations not only regulate trading by insiders but also seek to prohibit insider trading.

The Code is intended to serve as a guiding charter for all concerned persons associated with the functioning of listed companies and their trading in Securities of such companies.

Further, the Code also seeks to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of UPSI to the investor community by the company to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the Company's Securities. The provisions of this Code have to be read along with the Regulations and if there is any inconsistency/ contradiction between the two, the provisions of the Regulations shall prevail.

In the performance of his/her duties, the Compliance Officer shall have access to all information and documents relating to the Securities of the Company. The Compliance Officer shall act as the focal point for dealings with SEBI in connection with all matters relating to the compliance and effective implementation of the Regulations and this Code.

4. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

- 4.1 Trading Plan: An insider shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2 Trading plan shall

- i. Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

K

- ii. Not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any the right to seek specific information and/or undertakings to enable assessment of the trading plan and approve the same.

4.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatory implement without any deviation.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if the Insider is in possession of UPSI at the time of formulation of the plan and such UPSI has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. In such event, the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information.

4.5 Disclosure of Trading Plan: Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

5. Trading Window & Window Closure:

5.1 (i) The Compliance Officer shall notify a "trading window" during which the Specified Persons may trade in the Company's securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with these Rules.

(ii) All Specified Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

5.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the specified employees of the Company when he determines that a Specified person or class of specified persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

5.3 The Compliance Officer shall by way of e-mail or through generally accepted means of communication communicate the period of window closure to the Specified persons. It shall be the onus of the specified persons to communicate the non-trading period to their immediate relatives.

5.4 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

5.5 The trading window may be re-opened after closures, not earlier than 48 hours after the UPSI in question becomes generally available.

6. Pre-clearance of trades

1. All Specified Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company, shall when the Trading Window is open, trade only subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, by sending the request for approval in the format of Annexure I, if the proposed trading involves more than 50,000 shares or the value of the proposed trades is up to Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) or 1 % of total shareholding, whichever is less. The request for pre-clearing approval with enclosures may preferably be sent by email to sampada@polsonltd.com followed by hard copy of the documents.

However, no specified person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such specified person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.

2. The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by specified Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such specified Person is in possession of UPSI even though the trading window is open.
3. The Compliance Officer shall have the authority to ask for further information, declarations it may seem necessary, and it shall be obligatory for the specified person to immediately furnish such information to the satisfaction of the Compliance Officer.
4. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:
 - (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure I) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
 - (ii) An undertaking (Annexure II) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

K

- a. That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - b. That in case the Specified Employee has access to or received "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - c. That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - d. That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
5. The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking are true and accurate, approve Trading by a specified Person, on the condition that the Trade so approved shall be executed within seven days following the date of approval. (Annexure III).
 6. All Specified Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven days after the approval of pre-clearance is given.
 7. The Specified Persons shall file within 2 (two) days of execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure IV)
 8. If the pre-clearance order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the specified person must secure pre-clear the transaction again.
 9. All Specified Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

10. The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recoding reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.
11. Any specified person who Trades in securities without complying with the preclearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.

K

7. Other Restrictions:

- 7.1 All Specified Persons who buy or sell Securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (contra trade) i.e. sell or buy Securities during the six months period post the previous buy/sell.
- 7.2 The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing, provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulation.
- 7.3 If an opposite transaction (contra trade) is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act as per the applicable SEBI Regulations.

8. DISCLOSURE OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

8.1 General provisions:

- a. Every public disclosure under this Clause shall be made in such form as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- b. The disclosures to be made by any person shall include those relating to trading by such person, immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
